

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

PURIFYING THE PRESS.

The women movement to purify the press is about the saddest case of hope misplaced and time thrown away that ever came under our observation.

The press puts the movement on the back and the editors endorse it in long and piously written articles, but no one connected with a newspaper has the remotest idea of paying any further attention to it.

The papers which endorsed the movement so glibly still run there advertising columns on the announcements of harlots and abortionists just as they always have.

If the papers listened to the advice of the well meaning ladies who desire to purify the press, they would simply go out of business and they can be depended on with a reasonable certainty not to do that.

Kate Field has this sensible comment on this question:

What I have said comes as an editor of a national review that has never fallen below my own standard of right and wrong, has never pandered to sensationalism, knowing full well, however, that had I lowered the standard I should today be a rich woman instead of a very poor one.

If the women of California are so very anxious to uphold what is good in journalism I should be very glad to see them support Kate Field's Washington, created by one of their own sex, and that for the reasons I have stated above has received the highest medal and diploma from the World's Columbian Exposition. But I have no expectations of either moral or material support from my own sex.

KATE FIELD.

There are about 50,000 women who are "heart and soul" in this movement and out of that crowd of petition signers not 5 per cent. take Kate Field's paper.

Why? Simply because it is either too clean for them to copy or else their shout for clean papers is all buncombe.

NEVADA DAY.

Of course Nevada is to have a Day at the Fair, and the Governor has been requested to name one. He has concluded that the most memorable historic day for Nevada is the 22nd of March, at which time Governor Nye was appointed by Abraham Lincoln. The career of the State began on that day and it is a day that ought to be celebrated with great eclat by sagebrushers.

COMPLEMENTED.

A Reno Lady's Needle Work Appreciated.

Mrs. Potter Palmer, President of the Board of Lady Managers of the World's Fair at Chicago, has sent to Mrs. N. C. P. Smith of Reno the following letter congratulating her on the display of needle work, embroidery and specimens of lace exhibited. It is a compliment that Mrs. Smith appreciates:

My Dear Mrs. Smith: I wish to express my admiration of the beautiful lace work which you have exhibited in the Women's building during the summer. The delicate execution of this work elicited the utmost admiration from all who saw it.

Mrs. Candace Wheeler of New York, an artist of high standing, expressed in the most cordial manner her appreciation of this charming exhibit upon its installation.

Permit me to thank you for having added to the attractiveness of our building, and believe me, with cordial regards, very sincerely yours,

BERTHA HOMER PALMER,
President B. L. M.
To Mrs. N. C. P. Smith,

Greenfield Burned.

Jack Page, Wells Fargo and Co's messenger, reported that the business part of Greenfield (Pizen Switch), Lyon county, was burned Monday afternoon. The fire was incendiary and three men were arrested, who will probably be lynched if the evidence of their guilt is conclusive.

The Gazette thinks the APPEAL has opened a soup kitchen for the coast press. The soup is being ladled out by way of Cave Rock.
